

Vaccinations against COVID-19 for self-payers and foreigners

From 11. 6. 2021, self-payers and foreigners can register for a vaccination against the COVID-19 disease, provided that they are insured through a commercial healthcare insurance. Such people can register through the <https://registrace.mzcr.cz/> website.

The applicant must always enter their date of birth and passport number into the application form.

The vaccination itself will take place in selected vaccination centres, with the Pfizer/BioNTech Comirnaty vaccine.

You can find all information on the so-called COVID PORTAL <https://covid.gov.cz/situace/registrace-na-ockovani/ockovani-osob-bez-verejneho-pojisteni>

Below is information and the procedure with regard to how to apply for costs reimbursement for the vaccination from Slavia pojišťovna.

HOW TO APPLY FOR COSTS REIMBURSEMENT OF THE COSTS

Slavia pojišťovna will cover the vaccination costs for all clients with the Comprehensive healthcare insurance for foreigners valid for more than 90 days. Slavia pojišťovna will consequently reimburse the costs in the amount of 850 CZK for each dose of the vaccine. Therefore, reimbursement will only take place after the second dose has been administered.

How should the insured client proceed?

1. Register for the vaccine through the <https://registrace.mzcr.cz/> platform
2. Pay for the vaccine directly at the vaccination centre and get a receipt.
3. After the second dose, please contact Slavia pojišťovna with your application for costs reimbursement.

How do I apply for reimbursement?

Send your application together with the original proof of payment for the vaccines by post to the insurance company's headquarters: Slavia pojišťovna a.s., Táborská 940/31, 140 00 Prague 4, Czech Republic.

Please attach to your application:

1. The application – you can find the form in Czech, English and in Cyrillic on the insurance company's website, in the section PEOPLE/DOWNLOAD FORMS/FOREIGNERS
